Our thoughts are with the families, friends and loved ones of those affected by this tragedy, and we send our hope that those who perpetrated this horrible act will be brought to justice.

Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to support this resolution.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 64—EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF CONGRESS CONCERNING CONTINUED USE OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY TRAINING RANGE ON THE ISLAND OF VIEQUES IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO

Mr. INHOFE (for himself, Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire, Mr. SESSIONS, Mr. HUTCHINSON, and Mr. KYL) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services:

S. CON. RES. 64

Whereas the success or failure of the Nation's Armed Forces when sent into combat and the risk of loss of life, both to United States military personnel and to civilians, are a direct function of the degree of training received by members of the Armed Forces before combat;

Whereas from World War II through the most recent crisis in Kosovo the Nation's military has been able to meet the call to arms due to training such as that afforded at the United States Navy training range on the island of Vieques in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;

Whereas in April 1999, following an accident at that training range that resulted in the death of a Navy civilian employee, training activities at that range were suspended by direction of the Secretary of the Navy pending a safety review;

Whereas officials of the Department of Defense have testified before congressional committees that the Vieques training range is the only range along the Atlantic seaboard that allows critical combined arms live fire training that includes the coordinated use of naval surface fire support training, Navy/Marine amphibious combined arms training, Carrier Battle Group strike training and high altitude tactics, and subsurface training;

Whereas officials of the Department of Defense have testified before congressional committees that the safe conduct of operations on the island of Vieques has been and will remain the primary concern of the Department of the Navy and that the recent death of the civilian Navy employee on the range was the first civilian death on the range since its purchase in 1941;

Whereas the John F. Kennedy carrier battle group, which was unable to continue training at Vieques after the April accident, deployed in September 1999 in degraded readiness condition and the Dwight D. Eisenhower carrier battle group, which is scheduled to deploy in the spring of 2000, will be forced to deploy in a significantly degraded readiness condition if not allowed to conduct training activities at the Vieques training range before departing on that deployment;

Whereas the suspension of training activities at the Vieques training range has resulted in a loss of critical combat training that is essential to the Nation's Navy and Marine forces; and

Whereas, given that recently deploying Navy and Marine Corps battle groups have been sent directly into combat operations in Kosovo and Iraq, thereby placing service personnel immediately in harm's way, it would be unthinkable to knowingly deploy members of the Armed Forces in the future without this essential training, since to do so would place American lives, including the lives of members of the Armed Forces from Puerto Rico, at high risk: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Congress—

(1) calls upon the Secretary of the Navy and the Attorney General of the United States to promptly ensure that the Federal property located at the Vieques training range in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico is safe and secure and, once the range is safe and secure, for the Secretary of the Navy to resume critical live fire training at that range;

(2) calls upon the President, as Commander-in-Chief, to ensure that United States forces deploy with 100 percent of the combat qualifications needed to meet national security requirements;

(3) strongly urges the Department of Defense and the Government of Puerto Rico to reestablish a mutually supportive relationship, to resolve the issues between the Department of the Navy and the people of Puerto Rico, and to implement a program that addresses the economic and social needs and safety concerns of the residents of Vieques and the citizens of Puerto Rico; and

(4) recognizes the significant contribution by the residents of Vieques and the citizens of Puerto Rico to the Nation's defense.

SENATE RESOLUTION 209—EXPRESSING CONCERN OVER INTERFERENCE WITH FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND THE INDEPENDENCE OF JUDICIAL AND ELECTORAL INSTITUTIONS IN PERU

Mr. HELMS (for himself, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. COVERDELL, Mr. DODD, Mr. DEWINE, and Mr. JEFFORDS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

S. RES. 209

Whereas the independence of Peru's legislative and judicial branches has been brought into question by the May 29, 1997, dismissal of 3 Constitutional Tribunal magistrates;

Whereas Peru's National Council of Magistrates and the National Election Board have been manipulated by President Alberto Fujimori and his allies so he can seek a third term in office;

Whereas the Department of State's Country Report on Human Rights Practices for 1998, dated February 26, 1999, concludes, with respect to Peru, that "government intelligence agents allegedly orchestrated a campaign of spurious attacks by the tabloid press against a handful of publishers and investigative journalists in the strongly pro-opposition daily La Republica and the other print outlets and electronic media";

Whereas the Department of State's Country Report on Human Rights Practices for 1997, dated January 30, 1998, states that Channel 2 television station reporters in

Peru "revealed torture by Army Intelligence Service Officers" and "the systematic wire-tapping of journalists, government officials, and opposition politicians";

Whereas on July 13, 1997, Peruvian immigration authorities revoked the Peruvian citizenship of Baruch Ivcher, the Israeli-born owner of the Channel 2 television station; and

Whereas Baruch Ivcher subsequently lost control of Channel 2 under an interpretation of a law that provides that a foreigner may not own a media organization, causing the Department of State's Report on Human Rights Practices for 1998 to report that "threats and harassment continued against Baruch Ivcher and some of his former journalists and administrative staff...In September Ivcher and several of his staff involved in his other nonmedia businesses were charged with customs fraud. The Courts sentenced Ivcher in absentia to 12 years' imprisonment and his secretary to 3 years in prison. Other persons from his former television station, who resigned in protest in 1997 when the station was taken away, also have had various charges leveled against them and complain of telephone threats and surveillance by persons in unmarked cars": Now, therefore, be it

Resolved,

SECTION 1. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON ANTI-DEMOCRATIC MEASURES BY THE GOVERNMENT OF PERU.

It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the erosion of the independence of judicial and electoral branches of the Government of Peru and the blatant intimidation of journalists in Peru are matters of serious concern to the United States;

(2) efforts by any person or political movement in Peru to undermine that country's constitutional order for personal or political gain are inconsistent with the standard of representative democracy in the Western Hemisphere;

(3) the Government of the United States supports the effort of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights to report on the pattern of threats to democracy, freedom of the press, and judicial independence by the Government of Peru; and

(4) systematic abuse of the rule of law and threats to democracy in Peru could undermine the confidence of foreign investors in, as well as the credit worthiness of, Peru.

SEC. 2. TRANSMITTAL OF RESOLUTION.

The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State with the request that the Secretary further transmit such copy to the Secretary General of the Organization of the American States, the President of the Inter-American Development Bank, and the President of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.
